Faculty

Dr. Regina Carelli recently accepted an invitation to serve a three-year term as a member of the National Advisory Council on Drug Abuse. The National Institutes of Health National Research Advisory Councils are consulted by and provide advice to the Director of NIH concerning pertinent programs. A major responsibility is to review and make recommendations regarding grant applications to support biomedical research and research training activities. Additionally, Dr. Carelli will finish her appointment as Acting Chair of the Department on June 30th as Dr. Donald Lysle returns from his yearlong leave July 1st.

Dr. Jon Abramowitz was elected President of the Association for Behavioral and Cognitive Therapies. Dr. Abramowitz has been actively involved in this organization over the years. From 2005-2008 he served as a Representative-at-Large to the Board of Directors and has also served as Chair or member of various committees and work groups.

Dr. Donald Baucom was selected by clinical graduate students as the recipient of two awards, the Galinsky Award and the Swanson Award. The Galinsky award is given to a faculty member each year who offers outstanding supervision in honor of the late clinical supervisor and pillar of UNC Clinical Program, Dr. David Galinsky. The Swanson Award recognizes a member of the clinical program who has contributed the most in helping create a warm, supportive, and collaborative environment. Dr. Baucom is pictured to the right with some of his graduate students.

Dr. Barbara Fredrickson appeared on CBS this morning earlier this month to discuss amongst a panel of other professionals the pros and cons of cell phone use. Please click here to watch a video clip from this portion of the show and to read some of Dr. Fredrickson's tips on staying connected with others.

Dr. Kristen Lindquist will be receiving the Psychology Club "Best Faculty Research Mentor Award" for this academic year. Dr. Lindquist will be honored with this award at the commencement ceremony on May 12th.

Dr. Kurt Gray will be receiving the Psi Chi undergraduate teaching award for the department this academic year. He will be honored with this award at the commencement ceremony on May 12th.

Dr. Jennifer Arnold's research on speech disfluency was featured in an Endeavors' article. Endeavors is a publication by UNC-CH that features research and creative activity within the university. Please click here to read the full article.

Graduate Students

The “soon to be Dr.” Anna Sabatino of our Developmental Program has been appointed as a Research Coordinator at the VA Tech Center for Autism Research. In addition to working on various projects associated with autism research and being able to contribute to papers, she will work in interdisciplinary grants with PIs from a variety of departments across the university.

Clinical student, Nicole Fenton, is the recipient of a Graduate Student Mentor Award from the UNC Office of Undergraduate Research. Nicole will also be receiving the Psi Chi undergraduate teaching assistant award for the department this academic year. She will be honored with this award at the commencement ceremony on May 12th.

Clinical student, Daniel Lee, was selected as a recipient of an undergraduate teaching assistant award by the Student Undergraduate Teaching and Staff Award (SUTASA) Committee. Daniel was recognized for this honor at the Chancellor’s Awards Ceremony on April 18, 2013.

Social student, Lahanna Catalino, was selected by the UNC Psychology Club to receive the “Best Graduate Student Research Mentor Award” for this academic year. Lahanna will be honored with this award at the commencement ceremony on May 12th.

Clinical student, Shawn Jones has been selected as a recipient of a 2013 APA Student Travel Award which will help him travel to the APA Convention in Honolulu, HI next year to present his research.

Cognitive student, Renske Hoedemaker received a $500 award from the CUNY Research Foundation for her talk titled, "Accessing Semantic Size Information During Reading", which she presented at the 2012 Human Sentence Processing Conference at the CUNY Graduate Center in New York.

Developmental student, Adam Hoffman, is one of four winners selected as a recipient for the 2012-2013 Psi Chi Mamie Phipps Clark Research Grants. He will receive a grant of $1500 to help cover expenses of his MA thesis research.

Graduate Students

Social students, Suzannah \(Zan\) Isgett, Keenan Jenkins, and Chelsea Schein were all awarded the prestigious NSF Graduate Fellowship beginning next academic year. Among all doctoral programs in social psychology nationwide, UNC Social Psychology got the very most NSF Graduate Fellowships awarded in 2013. Zan and Keenan are pictured to the left and Chelsea is pictured to the right.

Clinical student, Jackie Nesi, was awarded an impressive NSF Graduate Research Fellowship for the upcoming academic year.

Clinical student, Ashly Gaskin, received a Carolina Consortium on Human Development pre-doctoral dissertation fellowship for the 2013-2014 academic year. She has also been selected as a recipient of a 2013 APA Student Travel Award which will help her travel to the APA Convention in Honolulu, HI next year to present her research.

Developmental student, Becca Stephens, has been awarded a stipend to teach a Howard Hughes Medical Institute Science Seminar in Spring 2014.

Developmental student, Elizabeth Adams, and clinical student, Cara Damiano, were selected this year as recipients by the Department of Psychology for the Earl and Barbara Baughman Dissertation Research Award. This award honors Earl and Barbara Baughman for their many contributions to our Department over the years and is intended to provide partial summer support for these two students as they work on their dissertation. Elizabeth is to the left and Cara to the right.

Developmental student, Maura Sabatos-DeVito, has been awarded a Carolina Consortium on Human Development pre-doctoral dissertation fellowship for the 2013-2014 academic year.

Clinical student, Jessica Solis, received the Ruth L. Kirschstein National Research Service Award (NRSA) for Individual Pre-doctoral Fellowship to Promote Diversity in Health-Related Research from NIDA. The award will allow her to utilize cutting edge statistical methods to examine the intergenerational transmission of stress, coping, and substance use in families who abuse substances.

Alumni

Dr. Jed Elison, a graduate of our Developmental Program, will join the faculty next fall at the University of Minnesota Institute of Child Development as a tenure-track assistant professor.

Evergreen Clinic

Dr. Erica Wise, Dr. Jennifer Youngstrom, Dick Clark, and several others working to make the Evergreen Clinic a center of excellence have been recognized by the UNC School of Social Work as "Outstanding in the Field." "Outstanding in the Field" is a series of articles spotlighting the experiences of MSW students.

Administrative Staff

Betty Satterfield started with the department in March as our new Accounting Manager. She comes to us from the Office of Sponsored Research (OSR) where she worked as a Program Administrator handling post-award activities for many departments on campus, including our department. Betty is knowledgeable about the specific types of grants and sub-contracts that we deal with in our department. She brings a wealth of knowledge and skills that will be valuable as we work to improve the accounting information that we provide to faculty and students.

Sam Zwemer started with the department in April as our new Student Services Assistant. Sam graduated from our department in 2010, and worked in Dr. Prinstein's Peer Relations Lab as an undergraduate. After graduation she worked for two years as a Research Project Coordinator for an Eating Behaviors Research Clinic at Florida State University. She has the background and knowledge to help our students and we are happy to have her.

Christina Rodriguez was recently elected by her peers to serve on the Employee Forum. The Forum's mission is to address constructively the concerns of UNC-CH employees and improve the quality of life of the entire university community.

Chrissie Greenberg was recently appointed by the Chancellor to serve a two-year term as a grievance specialist and support person. She was also elected by her peers to serve on the Employee Forum which helps address the concerns of UNC-CH employees.

Congratulations to our May 2013 Graduate Students!

The following students will receive their respective degrees from one of our graduate programs this spring.

Those receiving their doctoral degree will be honored at the Hooding Ceremony on Saturday, May 11th at 10:00 AM in the Dean E. Smith Center. Doctoral diplomas will be available for distribution in the Registrar's Office located at the Student Academic Services Building, immediately following the general commencement, on Sunday, May 12th until 2 PM. For more information about the Hooding Ceremony please visit the website here.

The Hooding Ceremony speaker will be Dr. Dan Ariely, a current member of the Duke faculty. Dr. Ariely received his master's degree and doctorate in cognitive psychology from the University of North Carolina—Chapel Hill.

The Accounting Corner

Welcome to our first edition in the Psychology Newsletter! Times are really busy in the Accounting office as we continue to prepare and publish our monthly reports to Faculty. Please remember that one week out of each month the Accounting office (room 207) will be closed for 4 hours every morning to ensure that we meet our reporting deadline each month. If you need assistance during those closed hours, please see Betty in room 205.

FORMS: Did you know that you can access all Accounting forms on our website? (Click on People, Staff, and the forms link is in the Accounting section.) You may find them here.

TRAVEL REIMBURSEMENTS: Please remember that travel reimbursements should be processed immediately upon the return of the traveler.

Did you know that if you drive out of state that you should check for a State vehicle through Carolina Motor Pool first? If a State vehicle is available you should use it. If you do not, you will only receive $.30 per mile instead of $.565 per mile. When turning in your travel reimbursement form, please indicate if you checked with Carolina Motor Pool. You can access their website by clicking here.

ACCOUNTING INBOX: The following mailboxes in room 231 are available for you to drop off any paperwork for Accounting. These are:

Linda Parson: Linda handles accounting for the Clinical, Quantitative, and Social Programs.

Karen Fincher: Karen handles accounting for the Behavioral Neuroscience, Cognitive, and Developmental programs.

Betty Satterfield: Betty is the Accounting Manager and handles all departmental accounts.

Each person also has an Inbox in their office as well.

CASH ADVANCES: All cash advances are required to be reconciled within 90 days of the check being issued. Failure to do so may result in no other cash advances being issued until it is reconciled.

QUICK REFERENCE GUIDES: We are in the process of creating quick reference guides for each lab and all NRSA Fellows.

ACCOUNT CLOSEOUTS: We will begin prompting Faculty several months in advance to plan for any account closeouts. These prompts will be to assist in planning use of any unexpended funds, reporting, and possible extensions. Any extension requests should be routed through Christina Rodriguez, Grants Manager.

FISCAL YEAR END: The University Fiscal year end approaches quickly (June 30, 2013). This will be an especially busy time for Accounting. There will be certain deadlines for payments, purchases, etc. We will circulate these deadlines as soon as they are made available to us from the Finance Division.
