Department News

SPIRE (Seeding Postdoctoral Innovators in Research and Education) has been elected as one of the Intergroup Collaboration recipients of the 2018 University Diversity Award. The University Diversity Awards recognized individuals or organizations across six categories for exemplary service or scholarship in promoting diversity, equity, social justice, community engagement, or cultural awareness. SPIRE is funded by the Institutional Research and Academic Career Development Award (IRACDA) program and its mission is to provide multi-dimensional professional development for science researchers and educators to succeed in academic careers, to bring engaging teaching methods into the classroom, and to increase diversity in the science professions.

6 Psychology and Neuroscience graduate students are recipients of the National Science Foundation Graduate Research Fellowship award! Four Clinical Psychology students, April Highlander, Anais Rodriguez Thompson, Katie Thompson, and Matt Clayton, and two Social Psychology students, Aya Avishai-Yitshak and Joseph Leshin, received this fellowship award. The NSF Graduate Research Fellowship recognizes outstanding graduate students in the STEM fields. NSF fellows receive three years of support from the agency and international research and professional development opportunities.

Dr. Sylvia Fitting, Assistant Professor of Behavioral and Integrative Neuroscience, is the recipient of a National Institutes of Health R01 grant. She received a total award of over $360,000 for her project, "Endocannabinoid-Mediated Neuroprotection in Models of NeuroAIDS in vivo."

News, continued.

Laura Machlin, a graduate student in Clinical Psychology, is the recipient of a Center for Developmental Science Carolina Consortium on Human Development (CCHD) Predoctoral Fellowship. The CCHD Predoctoral Program is a fully-funded two-year training program designed to facilitate continued diversity of candidates, mentors, institutions, and disciplines. The CCHD receives support through a T32 training grant from the National Institute on Child Health and Human Development to support a predoctoral and postdoctoral training program.

Lillian Reuman, a graduate student in Clinical Psychology, is the recipient of a 2018 UNC Office of Undergraduate Research's Graduate Student Mentor Award. The UNC Graduate Student Mentor Award was established to recognize and encourage mentoring of undergraduates by graduate students. This award recognizes the support, motivation, and perspective that graduate students bring to the undergraduate's understanding of the researcher experience.

Three graduate students in Psychology and Neuroscience were awarded the Earl and Barbara Baughman Dissertation Research Award, an award that promotes and supports innovative dissertation research in our Department and to support award recipients in the completion of their dissertation projects. Congratulations to Yenping Chang (Social Psychology; Dissertation "How Do I Let You Know? Cultural Variation in Gratitude Demonstrations Between United States and Taiwan"), Kimberly Pentel (Clinical Psychology; Dissertation "Cognitive-Behavioral Couple Therapy for Same-Sex Female Couples: A Pilot Study"), and Adam Smith (Cognitive Psychology; Dissertation "The Benefits (and Limitations) of Increased Immersion in Virtual Reality Environments on Episodic Memory Performance")!

Dr. Charlotte Boettiger, Associate Professor of Behavioral and Integrative Neuroscience, and Dr. Viji Sathy, Teaching Associate Professor, were elected by the faculty to positions in the Faculty Council. Dr. Boettiger will serve a three-year term as the Academic Affairs representative to the Financial Exigency and Program Change Committee and Dr. Sathy will serve a three-year term as the Division 3 representative for the Administrative Board of the Library.

Adam Smith, a graduate student in Cognitive Psychology, was awarded the UNC Graduate Schools' 2017-18 Dissertation Completion Fellowship. This fellowship supports doctoral students in the final year of their dissertation by providing a stipend, tuition, fees, and health insurance for one academic year. The fellowship enables a student to focus full-time on research and writing.

Latasha Mingo, Department Manager of Psychology and Neuroscience, is the 2017-18 recipient of the College of Arts and Sciences' Award in Management. This award acknowledges the dedication and hard work of managers in the College who coordinate and serve as liaisons with the Dean's office. Latasha was chosen for her outstanding accomplishments in leadership and teamwork, creativity and innovation, technology expertise, and effective human resource and budget management.
